

Grand Opening Week Event

After many months of planning, preparation and just plain hard work by all of the folks that have been a part of creating our new home, we are excited to announce the events and specials planned to celebrate our first week in the new location. We are excited to show off and have invited many of our supplier friends to join us during the week and would like have you visit us a well!

We will be offering special pricing on selected firearms, ammunition and accessories for this week only so come and check out the deals! Stock will start out high on all items but expect it to go quick during the week.
